"Look at the Whole Board" by Kevin Dunn

Written and Posted on February 18, 2012

Have you been paying attention to the "news" lately? It appears that there is now a media full frontal assault in swing as both the "mainstream news" and even the "alternative news media" report on wars and rumors of wars. Who has the power to create this stir within the various "news" reporting groups and why is it happening with such intensity now?

Can we trust this "news" or do we have good reason to doubt it?

Controlled News Media Quotes

<http://www.crossroad.to/Quotes/globalism/rockefeller.htm>

Pay close attention to this particular quote:

"More than half a century ago Hitler said the masses take a long time to understand and remember, thus it is necessary to repeat the message time and time and time again.

The public must be conditioned to accept the claims that are made...no matter how outrageous or false those claims might be."

For people who have been long time listeners of Ron Paul's biggest promoter, does that quote apply to him? How many times does he say the same things in EVERY show? It happens day after day after day. It never ends, does it? How many times does he mention Ron Paul in a single day? It does not matter what the topic might be, he finds a way to bring up Ron Paul. Why is he doing this when he said on January 11, 2012 that "America is GONE"? Did you hear him make that statement on his show? Here is the exact quote which you can hear for yourself by clicking on the linked quote:

"most people I talk to have American flags all over their cars. It's like why do you got to stick it everywhere? Cause you know deep down, it's gone. It's gone like the year 1957 and it ain't comin back. America is gone."

I wrote an article titled "Ron Paul is Not the Answer" 3 days after that quote was uttered on his radio show. If America is gone, why is Ron Paul's promoter still pushing Ron Paul on us? What is the agenda here? He says that America is gone, but Ron Paul is our only hope?

Our only hope for what? If America is gone like the year 1957 and it isn't coming back, why is this promoter pretending that any of the election nonsense matters? If this is not double speak, then I don't know what double speak is. Can I see the raised hands of all of the readers who think that we are all being played here?

So what is going on? Ron Paul's promoter claims to be a Christian and yet I see no evidence that he takes his own profession seriously. It's amazing to listen to him announcing problem after problem after problem without ever giving people any inkling of a solution except for telling everyone to "TAKE ACTION" by telling other people about his show and supporting Ron Paul. I have never heard him offer the slightest connection to the Holy Bible while talking about any current world event.

He did an interview with Lyndon LaRouche on February 10, 2012. That interview was so bad, that it literally took me days to get through it. I only listened to the whole thing so that I could write this article, which was finally completed 8 days later. If readers can handle it, here is the complete interview <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iFYxhGD4XI8> or

<http://www.kissyourillusionsgoodbyevidenceroom.com/videos-page-1-9/LaRouche-on-Alex-Jones--February-10-2012-107868>

Not ONCE, in that entire interview, did Ron Paul's promoter bring up the Holy Bible and try to apply Scripture to the "problems" despite his previous "on air" professions of being a Christian. Not once did he show any knowledge of Scripture as it applies to these endtimes. The topics that were discussed are most definitely endtimes events. Why be a Christian and tell his vast radio audience that he is a Christian, when he won't even mention how the Holy Bible applies to the subject matter being discussed?

I can't speak for everyone else, but I want to be educated when I spend a significant amount of my time listening to someone. There is a huge difference between just being informed and being educated. I will compare it to learning how to drive. Every child has seen his/her parents driving their entire life, but when it comes time for the child to learn how to drive, that is a whole different thing. When is Ron Paul's promoter going to teach us all "how to drive" by showing us the connections between current world events and the Holy Bible? Can't he do it just as effortlessly and effectively as he is doing his program now? For example, here are 2 verses that apply to that interview

Mark 13:7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for [such things] must needs be; but the end [shall] not [be] yet.

Mark 13:8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these [are] the beginnings of sorrows.

Why didn't Ron Paul's promoter make this connection in the interview so that his listeners could connect a few dots and better understand how the Holy Bible absolutely applies to the world around us?

You may be wondering what the title of this article has to do with what you have read up to now. Here is that connection..... what do you REALLY know about what's going in this world? By that I mean, what do you know from your own experience? When you watch the TV "News", do you KNOW that the information that you are being told is true? Unless you were actually at the event and witnessed what is being discussed on the TV "News", you are taking whatever information that is being presented to you on faith, if you choose to believe it. That's exactly how easy it is to feed us lies. We are all susceptible to being manipulated by this form of information. That includes EVERY video that we are shown. When the TV "News" shows a video, it was most likely edited before it was aired. If the video was edited, that is an "in your face" admission that every video was manipulated by someone to show us what THEY decided we should see and not necessarily what we should have seen. The same thing applies to the written word and audio, but video is the KING. People just love videos. Can anyone say "Youtube"?

We get a great deal of information from videos, whether that information is true or false. Most of us watch TV, go to the movies or rent movies. TV "News" is nothing without videos, which means manipulated (edited) information to suit someone else's goal. Here is another video. There is a serious nugget of truth in it for us.

From the TV series "West Wing". This is Season 3, Episode 13 "Hartsfield's Landing". If you have access to the West Wing TV series, I suggest that you watch the entire episode.

Notice the initial discussion between the President and Sam very closely. The President is clearly telling Sam that appearances are NOT always reality. The President tells Sam "Look

at the whole board". Sam says that he is looking and the President says that he is not. This is exactly what is happening to us. We are ALL just like Sam to varying degrees. We have ALL accepted a great deal of information in our lives because some person in authority told us. Teachers, preachers, politicians, lawyers, police, judges, doctors,..... Most of us have stopped looking at the whole board, much to our detriment.

Also notice that it is the President who is deceiving the other world leaders. He is playing a game of chess with Sam during this conversation. That chess game is symbolic of the very sort of game that he is playing with the other world leaders, which is the topic of their conversation. The President is showing Sam how to effectively manipulate people into doing what he wants done. Additionally, it is very easy to apply this principle to what our "leaders" and the "news" media are doing to us every day. We are all being played.

Who has nuclear weapons in this world? Before you answer, think about how you "know". Do you know it from personal experience or do you only believe it because some authority figure told you on the news or in school, etc? How many times have you been told? How many times have you seen it on TV shows and in movies? How many times have you read it in the "newspaper" or magazines or novels? Yes, we have all seen videos of nuclear bombs exploding, but does that mean that every country that we have been told has those weapons, REALLY has those weapons? Are we just taking someone else's word for it?

It should now be clear to you that we don't KNOW anything about the nuclear weapons around the world except for what we have been told by the lying government and the lying "news" media. Isn't it up to each one of us to stop and really think about what we will believe and what we are not going to believe? Watch some of the 9-11 videos on this website to see how we were all lied to about 9-11. Why should any of us believe the government and the "news" media after they have lied to us?

As you listened to that interview between Ron Paul's promoter and Lyndon LaRouche, did you ask yourself "where is the evidence"? Both of them were talking like what they were saying is true, but what did they prove to us? Yes, some of the things that were said can be proven if a person takes the time to do the research, but other things that were said were complete conjecture and speculation.

If you watched the controlled media video at the start of the article, then you know that the "news" media of every sort has been controlled for a very long time. That means that "news" stories can be used to CON_vince us of something that is not true. The New World Order can place stories in every major "news" reporting agency to give the illusion that something is real, even when it is not. Never forget that.

Consider these quotes"

Shakespeare from "As You Like It" Act 2, scene 7, 139-143

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages.

The politicians, the preachers, the "news" media, ect, are ALL merely players on the stage in this world. They are NO different than what we see when we watch TV or movies. We all know that the TV shows and movies that we watch are fake. Why don't we know the same thing about all of the people who are trying to CON_vince us in the media and the public arena?

Sun Tzu from "The Art of War" - All war is based on deception.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Art\_of\_War

Ron Paul's promoter has a website called Infowars.com INFO WARS

Ron Paul's promoter knows that we are in a WAR and that this war is mostly fought through information/disinformation. He knows it and yet he is withholding the most important information from his audience. That information is about how the Holy Bible absolutely applies to what is happening in this world right now. Why would a person go out of his way to claim that he is a Christian and yet fail so miserably to speak the truth about Jesus Christ and the King James Bible when he is speaking to millions of people about the very endtime topics as he did with Lyndon LaRouche? Every listener should have received a great education about God during that interview if Ron Paul's promoter would have clearly laid things out to us and connected the dots like he normally does while quoting an enormous number of different sources from memory. It seems that he will use every source of information that is at his disposal EXCEPT for the King James Bible. Does he have the same astounding memory for Bible verses as he does for all of the "problems, problems, problems" that are claimed by the New World Order controlled "news" media?

Unless Ron Paul's promoter changes his ways, listeners can continue to expect to be informed about the dire situations of the world, which the Bible clearly tells us are only going to get worse. However, they are sadly mistaken if they think that they will be educated about what really matters and what action they should really be taking at this time.

Proverbs 1:7 The fear of the LORD [is] the beginning of knowledge: [but] fools despise ## wisdom and instruction.

I do not despise wisdom and instruction. In fact, I seek it where I can find it. I wonder if Ron Paul's promoter intends to use his God given talents to bestow wisdom and knowledge on his audience or if he intends to keep us ignorant during his tour of duty. Will he give the unknowing masses the illusion of their greater understanding for having listened to him or will he provide them a meaningful education that prepares them for the perils that will soon be upon us all? We are most definitely living in the endtimes of the Bible.

2nd Timothy

2Ti 3:1 This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

2Ti 3:2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

2Ti 3:3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

2Ti 3:4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

2Ti 3:5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

2Ti 3:6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, 2Ti 3:7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

It seems appropriate to end this article with that last verse. Will the audience listening to Ron Paul's promoter come to the knowledge of the truth about Jesus Christ and how the Bible applies to current world events, or will they be denied the opportunity to hear that truth from him because that is not part of his agenda?

As always, trust God and trust the King James Bible.
